

STELLA MARIS CONVENT SCHOOL
NARAYANPUR, SULTANPUR - 228001

Circular No. SMCS/03/2022

Date: 10.02.2022

Dear Parents/Guardians,

We all play a vital role in the growth, personality and character of the children. Human values, the human touch, the human relations-these are what we need to cultivate in season and out of season if our education is to be worthwhile, relevant and effective. You can help your child to increase his/her own attentiveness and concentrating abilities by entrusting them with some responsibility or any simple work at home. Guide them in their tasks in your own small way. Be patient with them and encourage them on their success however small it may be. Be aware of all the activities that interest your children. Check their home assignments. Be informed about their friends circle and the company they keep.

As your child is preparing for the Final Examination you could guide him/her and follow these tips:

1. Find time to be with your child.
2. Ensure that your child has completed revision in time for the exam.
3. Your child needs affection, attention, appreciation and encouragement. Be lavish with all these.

To the students

To be successful, you have to learn to enjoy what you are doing or are required to achieve. Doing well is reward in itself for a success-oriented person. We should form the habit of working for the love of work, and get involved. The only road to success is through clear purpose. A man with a success-oriented attitude is happy, and likes doing what he does. Failure hurts. But it is more hurting when failure comes your way when you do not give your best. Things improve when we ourselves improve. There is no magic wand to make things and circumstances better. It is a fact of life that despite your doing your best, sometimes you cannot eliminate failure and disappointments. Doing your best itself is rewarding and boosts your self-respect. You have to be persistent to succeed.

Always Carry the Image of Victory Within You

You must identify your goals. The following suggestions will help you in this direction.

1. Identify your aim, objective and purpose in life.
2. Write down your aims and goals and set a definite timetable for reaching them.
3. Choose goals that are consistent with your perceptions and the way you see yourself.
4. Break your goals down into easily achievable sub-goals and objectives.
5. Review your goals from time to time. Check your progress. All your efforts should be to make your dreams come true. Make your goals a reality.
6. Constantly set a new goal after you have achieved one.

Do your best and God will do the rest. Hurry Up! Start Now. Success is yours!

Wishing you God's choicest Blessings.
